The Pews in the above Church will be sold in the Church on MONDAY EVENING, the Sigh instant, at 7 a clock, and the inducements of fixed to parchasers are such as shouls not consecute the attention of persons desiring to secure pews.

The annual resist on overy pew purchased will be reduced by an amount equal to air per cent, on the purchase money paid for it. For instance, A pays $60 for a pew the annual rantal of which is $80; now, six per cent, on $60 is $20; this reduction from the annual rental ($50) leaves $50 as the assumal rental on the pew.

It is due to the vestry and congregation to state that there will be given no advantage to any one at the sale or at private sale, and that, although the members of the vestry and congregation have already contributed very liberalty, and some of them very largely, to the building of the Church, in the sale of the pews they will have no advantage whatever from such asbeer pittons, but will have to competence. The Church is opened for inspection on By order of the Vestry;

lobbing promptly alleaded SPEED OF HORSES

There is nothing that is attracting so much attention as the extraordinary speed developed by the horses of our country at the present time.

It is a remarkable fact that we find them Tretting down to 1100, 1117, 1114, and even showing a speed down to 1000, 1117, 1114, and even showing a speed down to 1000, 1117, 1114, and even showing a speed down to 1000, 1117, 1114, and even showing a speed down to 1000, 1117, 1117, 1114, and even showing a speed though application and carried adjustment of the lines and the Salary Fasting and Quarter Scott afferding sprotection.

I would, therefore, invite the public and those using young horses to my LANGE AND TINE ASSORTMENT OF BOOKS
